

Information about each Learning Model for the start of school on August 24, 2020

Traditional Model

- ❖ Face-to-face instruction daily Monday through Friday
- ❖ Students will remain in static groups
- ❖ Emphasis placed on literacy and numeracy with opportunities for remediation
- ❖ Transportation will be provided for all eligible students
- ❖ Social distancing will be followed to the maximum extent possible
- ❖ Students will remain in static groups with adults rotating into classes to provide instruction
- ❖ Students will participate in activities such as recess and PE
- ❖ Grab-and-go meals provided for students

Hybrid Model

- ❖ Allows for students to receive face-to-face instruction in a safe setting
- ❖ Technology will be provided for any families as needed to participate in virtual classes
- ❖ Whether in person or virtual, students will be taught by their teachers throughout the week
- ❖ Students and families will receive training and supports on how to use the district's new virtual platform, Canvas
- ❖ Students are able to learn in smaller groups to allow for better understanding of content
- ❖ Transportation will be provided for all eligible students
- ❖ Social distancing will be followed to the maximum extent possible
- ❖ Students will continue to participate in activities such PE, and other extracurriculars
- ❖ Grab-and-go meals provided for days when students are not at the campus

Virtual Model

- ❖ Students will be taught by certified teachers at their school
- ❖ All student work will be assessed for a grade based on the Board's grading policy
- ❖ Technology will be provided for any families as needed to participate in virtual classes
- ❖ Students and families will receive training and supports on how to use the district's new virtual platform, Canvas
- ❖ Canvas is the national leader in virtual learning supports for schools and is used by more than 2,000 schools and districts across the nation
- ❖ The user-friendly platform is customized based on grade level and teacher preferences
- ❖ Instruction will be offered live and on demand
- ❖ Grab-and-go meals will be provided